Whereas the President of the United States did, on the twenty-third day of October, nineteen hundred and thirteen, issue the following proclamation:

"BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.
"A PROCLAMATION.

"The season is at hand in which it has been our long respected custom as a people to turn in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His manifold mercies and blessings to us as a nation. The year that has just passed has been marked in a peculiar degree by a manifest of His gracious and beneficent providence. We have not only had peace throughout our own borders and with the nations of the world but that peace has been brightened by constantly multiplying evidences of genuine friendship, of mutual sympathy and understanding, and of the happy operation of many elevating influences both of ideal and practice. The nation has not only been prosperous, but has proved its capacity to take calm counsel amidst the rapid movement of affairs and deal with its own life in a spirit of candor, righteousness and comity. We have seen practical completion of a great work at the Isthmus of Panama which not only exemplifies the nation's abundant resources to accomplish what it will and the distinguished skill and capacity of its public servants, but also promises the beginning of a new age, of new contracts, new neighborhoods, new sympathies, new bonds and new achievements of coöperation and peace. Righteousness exalteth a nation and peace on earth and good will towards men furnish the only foundations upon which can be built the lasting achievements of the human spirit. The year has brought us the satisfactions of work well done and fresh visions of our duty which will make the work of the future better still.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday the twenty-seventh day of November next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Por cuanto el Presidente de los Estados Unidos expidió la siguiente proclama el día veintitrés de Octubre de mil novecientos trece:

"PROCLAMA DEL PRESIDENTE DE LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS DE AMÉRICA.

"Ha llegado la época en que ha sido largo y respetable costumbre de este pueblo dar gracias y tributar alabanzas al Dios Todopoderoso por las muchas mercedes y bendiciones que ha derramado sobre nosotros como nación. El año que acaba de pasar se ha señalado especialmente por las manifestaciones de su bondadosa y benéfica providencia. No solo hemos gozado de paz en todas partes dentro de nuestras fronteras y con los demás países del mundo sino que dicha paz ha sido realizada por pruebas siempre crecientes de verdadera amistad, de simpatía y de inteligencia mútuas y del feliz concurso de muchas elevadas influencias tanto del ideal como de la práctica. No solo ha estado próspera la nación, sino que ha probado su capacidad para obrar con serenidad de juicio en medio del rápido desarrollo de los acontecimientos y de acometer los problemas de su propia vida con espíritu de sinceridad, rectitud y benevolencia. Hemos visto la terminación de una gran obra en el istmo de Panamá que no solo pone de manifiesto los abundantes recursos de la nación para realizar su voluntad y la capacidad y especial pericia de sus servidores públicos, sino que promete también el principio de una nueva era, de nuevos contactos, nuevas vecindades, nuevas simpatías, y nuevos lazos y nuevas empresas de cooperación y de paz. La rectitud exalta a una nación y la paz en la tierra y la buena voluntad entre los hombres ofrecen la única base sobre la cual pueden levantarse las obras duraderas del espíritu humano. El año nos ha traído la satisfacción de haber obrado bien y de tener la visión clara de nuestro deber que hará mejor aún la obra del porvenir.

"Por tanto, Yo, Woodrow Wilson, Presidente de los Estados Unidos de América, por la presente designo el jueves veintisiete de Noviembre próximo como día de gracias y preces e invito al pueblo de toda esta tierra a dar de mano a sus habituales ocupaciones y a rendir gracias al Dios Todopoderoso en sus hogares y en sus templos.

Whereas the undersigned has received a petition from all the banking houses, asking that the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and thirteen, be declared a public holiday, in order that the yearly balances may be completed before the beginning of the next calendar year; and

Whereas the banking houses signing said petition have agreed that drafts that should be payable on the thirty-first of December, nineteen hundred and thirteen, if the same were not a holiday, shall not be protested until sunset on January second, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and that they will receive moneys from the business community on said thirty-first day of December for safe-keeping, providing that such moneys shall not be taken up on the banks' accounts until the second day of January; and it appearing to the Executive that the thirtieth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fourteen, are public holidays, and that said thirty-first day of December can be declared a public holiday to the great advantage of the banking and importing and exporting houses, for the purpose of completing the work of their yearly balances, and that retail establishments may keep open and transact business, should they so desire:

Now, therefore, I, Francis Burton Harrison, Governor-General of the Philippine Islands, by virtue of the authority in me vested by Act Numbered One thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and there being, in my judgment, sufficient reasons therefor, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and thirteen, as a public holiday.

Por cuanto las casas de banca que firman dicha solicitud han convenido en que los giros que serían pagaderos el día treinta y uno de Diciembre de mil novecientos trece, si dicho día no fuese festivo, no serán protestados hasta la puesta del sol del día dos de Enero de mil novecientos catorce, y en que recibirán dinero del comercio en dicho día treinta y uno de Diciembre para custodiarlo: Entendiéndose, Que dicho dinero no se asentará en las cuentas de los bancos hasta el día dos de Enero; y resultando para el Jefe Ejecutivo que el día treinta de Diciembre de mil novecientos trece y el primero de Enero de mil novecientos catorce son días de fiesta pública, y que dicho día treinta y uno de Diciembre puede ser declarado día de fiesta pública para la mayor ventaja de las casas de banca y de importación y exportación, con el fin de que completen el trabajo de sus balances anuales, y que los establecimientos de venta al detalle puedan continuar abiertos, haciendo negocios si así lo desean;
